New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company

TREASURER'S OFFICE

NEW HAVEN, CONN., November 18, 1997. To the stockholders of the New Tork, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, and to holders of its 31,75 Convertible Debenture Certificates of the issue of January 1, 1996, and to holders of warrants for subscriptions to such debentures or of receipts for subscriptions to such debentures or of receipts for subscriptions to such debentures upon which three installments have been paid:

Pursuant to a resolution of this Company's Board of Directors adopted November 9, 1907, there will be issued debentures of The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company of an authorized total issue of Thirty nine Million Twenty-nine Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($30,029,000), all payable in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness, or its equivalent. n January 15, 1948, bearing interest until due at the rate of six per cent, per annum, payable on the 15th days of January and July in each year, and all convertible into shares of this Company's capital stock at any time when the books of the Company are not closed for the transfer of stock after January 15, 1923. and not later than January 13, 1948, at the rate of one share of such stock for each One Hundred Dollars of the principal amount of such debentures.

These debentures will be either debentures registered as to principal and interest for the principal aums of One Hundred Dollars, One Thousand Dollars or Ten Thousand Dollars, or coupon debentures for the principal sum of One Thousand Dollars. The coupon debentures may be registered as to principal. Ten registered debentures of One Hundred Dollars each may be exchanged for one registered as to principal.

Ten registered debentures of One Hundred Dollars each may be exchanged for one registered debenture of One Thousand Dollars or a coupon debenture of the same amount, One hundred debentures for One Hundred Dollars each, or ten debentures whether coupon or registered for One Thousand Dollars each, may be exchanged for one registered debenture for Ten Thousand Dollars. The debentures will provide for an adjustment of interest and dividend at the time of conversion into right of subscription for any future issue of capital stock of this Company to the same extent as they would enjoy such right if they were bolders at the time of such issue of the shares of the stock to which they will become entitled by conversion of the debentures. These debentures will also provide, so far as lawfully may be, that if this Company shall thereafter ercate any mortgage upon its now existing main line of railroad between Woodlawn in the City and State of New York and Springfield in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or its now existing main line between New Haven in the State of Connecticut and Providence in the State of Rhode Island, such debentures shall without further act be entitled to share in the security of such mortgage pro rata with any other obligations that may be secured thereby, and that any such mortgage shall expressly so provide.

The right to subscribe for these debentures on or before January 15, 1908, but not thereafter, is offered upon the terms and conditions of warrants to be issued as follows:

To the holders of stock of this Company (not held in its Treasury) of record at the close of business

December 2, 1907, and their assigns, a right of subscription at the rate of One Hundred Dollars of the principal amount of such debentures for every three shares of this Company's stock held by them respectively: To the holders at the close of business December 2, 1907, of this Company's three and one half per cent. Convertible Debenture Certificates convertible into stock between January 1, 1911, and January 1, 1916. which are registered as to principal and interest, and their assigns, a right of subscription at the same rate as if the holders of such contracts were holders of the stock to the future delivery of which they are entitled, to wit: at the rate of One Hundred Dollars of the principal amount of such debentures for each Four Huadred and Fifty Dollars of the principal amount of such three and one half per cent. Convertible Debenture Certificates held by them respectively;

To all holders of three and one-half per cent. Convertible Debenture Certificates convertible into stock between January 1, 1911, and January 1, 1916, having coupons attached, whether registered as to principal or not, and all holders of warrants for subscriptions for such debentures or of receipts for subscriptions for such debentures, upon which three installments have been paid, a right of subscription at the same rate as If the holders of such contracts were already holders of the stock to the future delivery of which they are entitled, to wit: at the rate of One Hundred Dollars of the principal amount of such six per cent. Convertible Debentures for each Four Hundred and Fifty Dollars of principal amount of the three and one-half per east. Convertible Debenture Certificates convertible into stock between January 1, 1911, and January 1 1916, which they respectively hold or are entitled to receive upon payment of the fourth installment due upon the subscription for such three and one-half per cent. Convertible Debenture Certificates; provided, however, that such holders shall present such debentures, warrants or receipts on or before Decembe 20, 1907, to either tiess such rights are consolidated according to the terms of the warrants into a subscription for One Hun

The fractional warrants will be transferable by delivery. The other warrants will be transfer execution of the blank form of assignment upon the back thereof. Holders of these warrants, other than fractional warrants, who may wish to subscribe for a portion of the debentures covered by the warrant and to dispose of the remainder of their rights, or to dispose of a portion of their rights to one person and of the remainder to another, should return their warrants to the er of warrants desired in exchange, the amount of debentures to be covered by each and the names o those to whom they are to be issued respectively. All warrants must be returned to the Treasurer at New Haven, Connecticut, together with a subscri tion duly made in pursuance of the terms of the warrant. Upon receipt on or before Jan. 15, 1908, of a subscription authorized by warrants, together with such warrants, the Treasurer of the Co evidencing the rights of the subscriber, which will, so long as payments are duly made and shown by duly executed receipts on the face thereof, be transferable by execution of the blank form of assignment on the back thereof. Upon surrender of such a certificate of subscription to the Treasurer of the Company at New Haven with an assignment duly endorsed thereon, one or more new certificates will be issued in accordance with such assignment evidencing rights of the same aggregate face value as shown upon the certificate when surrendered; provided, however, that no rights of subscription will be recognized by the Company except rights of subscription for One Hundred Dollars of debentures or multiples thereof. The certificate of subscription must be presented at the time of any payment upon the subscription, order that a receipt for the payment may be duly executed on the face thereof. At the time of any pay a all amounts previously paid by way of partial payment upon the subscription, as then evidenced by the duly executed receipts upon the face of the certificate of subscription, recuoned from the date of the ast previous installment payment as then evidenced by said receipts.

Subscription certificates with duly executed receipts upon the face thereof evidencing full payment he amount subscribed will be exchangeable for engraved debentures as soon as these can be prepared. The debentures will bear interest from that one of the dates above named for payment of installments on which full payment of the amount of the subscription shall have been completed, as evidenced by the duly executed receipts upon the certificate of subscription No subscription or assignment of the right to subscribe will be recognized unless made on the forms of the Company and upon the terms and in the manner set forth in the warrants to be issued. Fractions desired to complete full debentures, or fractions which holders desire to dispose of, must be bought or sold in the market, as the Company cannot buy or sell fractions.

Fallure to make any installment payment upon a subscription when and as due will operate as an abandonment of all rights of the subscriber.

All rights of subscription not properly exercised or abandoned will be forfeited to the Company. to
